Clark Moulton

Moulton 50th Wedding

15 June 1986

Clark and Veda Moulton will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday at their home in Jackson Hole, Wyo. The event is open to all friends and relatives.

The couple were married June 10, 1936 in the Logan Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Clark was born Oct. 7, 1912 in Grovont, Wyo. He was a rancher and served as Branch President and Bishop in the Jackson Hole area for many years. He is one of the original old timers of the Valley. He can tell a "fact-filled" yarn that keeps the history of the area unpolluted. The Wyoming Historical Society uses him as a reference on many occasions.

Veda May Moulton was born April 23, 1914 in Grovont, Wyo. As a wife of a rancher she has prepared hundreds of meals for the hired help and is fondly known as the best cook in the territory. She has served in all capacities for the LDS Church with many years as ward organist and Primary President. She worked as treasurer in the Women's Republican Party for 14 years.

Clark and Veda were raised on the Family Homestead in Jackson Hole, Wyo., living on "Mormon Row." They now spend their summers in their first home at the base of the Grand Tetons and their winter sin Provo where they enjoy many hours working in the Provo Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Moulton

The couple have three children, Betty Gardner, Idaho Falls, Idaho; Clark A. Moulton Jr., Provo and Judy Moulton, Lindon.

They have six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.
